

Our Church Collections

The First Collection at Sunday Masses is taken up soon after the homily. This directly supports the priests of the Archdiocese who serve us. Their work includes the normal liturgical and pastoral services at our church, but often extends further as they offer their services to other parishes and schools in their time of need. Your generous support of our priests through the First Collection is appreciated.

The Second Collection at Sunday Masses supports the Parish in its financial commitments. These include:

- Repayment of Loans.
- Payment of Staff Salaries
- Administrative costs of the Office
- Diocesan Subsidies
- Pastoral, Sacramental and Educational expenses, Annual Grants to Charities beyond us

Supplementary Collections are taken up from time to time. These are taken up after communion and directed in full to the announced cause. These include:

- Diocesan Charitable Works Fund
- Disaster Relief
- Retired Priests Fund

Thanksgiving or Planned Giving are terms used across Australia. Begun in the 1950's, it is our way of being able to budget to pay our expenses in relationship to the promised level of giving from parishioners. Through their Annual Commitment, parishioners are invited where possible to contribute an amount equivalent to their first hour of work for the week. This contribution is made by either Debit Card or a weekly/monthly envelope contribution. The Debit Card option is becoming more popular and is more secure.

Immaculate Heart of Mary

Lord you place deep in our hearts the love of Mary Help of Christians.

Through her prayers grant wisdom to our leaders and integrity to our citizens.

Under her protection may Australia be granted harmony, justice and peace. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BULLETIN

26th July 2015

Entrance Antiphon

God is in his holy place,
God who unites those who dwell in his house; he himself gives might and strength to his people.

First Reading: 2 Kgs 4:42-44

Responsorial Psalm: Ps 144:10-11, 15-18.
R. v.16

(R.) The hand of the Lord feeds us;
he answers all our needs.

1. All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing. They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God. (R.)

2. The eyes of all creatures look to you and you give them their food in due time. You open wide your hand, grant the desires of all who live. (R.)

3. The Lord is just in all his ways and loving in all his deeds. He is close to all who call him, who call on him from their hearts. (R.)

Second Reading: Eph 4:1-6

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!
A great prophet has appeared among us;
God has visited his people.
Alleluia!

Gospel: Jn 6: 1-15

Communion antiphon:

Bless the Lord, O my soul,
and never forget all his benefits.

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate:

The disciples fell into the verbal trap which Jesus set. They believed that market forces should dictate how the hunger of the crowd could be satisfied. It was a young lad who put the disciples to shame, simply handing over five barley loaves and two fish to Jesus. It was because of his generosity that Divine generosity was able to feed the crowd.

Divine desire to satisfy the hungers of humanity for the various necessities of life (food, shelter, companionship, education, medicines) require human generosity. Otherwise, Divine Compassion cannot be effective in the world.

Voluntary renunciation of property and sharing of wealth still occurs in the little oases of monasteries and convents, echoes of the radical redistribution of wealth recorded in the Acts of the Apostles (Acts 4:32-35). St Luke makes it clear that this was essentially linked to the Apostles' testifying to the Resurrection 'with great power'.

Francis of Assisi and now Francis of Buenos Aires remind us that the Church itself needs to engage in the redistribution of its wealth to enable the hungers of humanity to be satisfied. This will give authenticity to its preaching of the Gospel, and enable its evangelising to be undertaken 'with great power'.

We could take a moment to pray that we become more like the little boy in the Gospel, more like Francis of Assisi, more like Francis of Buenos Aires, voluntarily sharing our wealth to satisfy the hungers of humanity.

Prayer to the Holy Family by Pope Francis
 Jesus, Mary and Joseph, in you we contemplate the splendour of true love, to you we turn with trust.
 Holy Family of Nazareth, grant that our families too may be places of communion and prayer, authentic schools of the Gospel and small domestic Churches.
 Holy Family of Nazareth, may families never again experience violence, rejection and division: may all who have been hurt or scandalized find ready comfort and healing.
 Holy Family of Nazareth, may the approaching Synod of Bishops make us once more mindful of the sacredness and inviolability of the family, and its beauty in God's plan.
 Jesus, Mary and Joseph, graciously hear our prayer!
 Amen.

The children were lined up in the cafeteria of a Catholic elementary school for lunch. At the head of the table was a large tray of apples. A nun lettered a note and posted it on the apple tray: "Take only ONE. God is watching."
 Moving along the lunch line, at the other end was a large tray of chocolate chip cookies. A girl wrote a note, which she put next to the tray of cookies, "Take all you want. God is watching the apples."

Sunday 26 July: National Vocation Awareness Week
 Next week is Vocations Week, dedicated to explore our role in society as Catholics, living out the words of Pope Francis: "This is the Church we all love, this is the Church I love: a mother who has the good of her children at heart and who is able to give her life for them. We must not forget, however, that the Church is not only the priests, or we bishops, no, she is all of us! The Church is all of us!"
Seminary Open Day: Sunday 9th August
 Men seeking an insight into seminary life and the vocation to the priesthood are invited to this event at the Seminary of the Good Shepherd. The program includes Sunday Mass, brunch, a talk and a guided tour as well as time to chat with seminarians.
Details: 9:00 am - 2:30 pm, Seminary of the Good Shepherd: 50-58 Abbotsford Rd Homebush NSW, Cost: Free, but registration essential. Enquiries/registration: vocations@sydneycatholic.org or 9307-8424.

Celebrating
 One Year to WYD with GRACEFEST! A night of Praise and Worship.
 This Year we are extremely excited to have our very own Archbishop Anthony give the catechesis on the WYD Theme "Mercy". Once again we will Adore our God and be led in worship by Stephen Kirk and the Graceband. Reconciliation will be available throughout the night provided by the priests that will accompany us on our WYD journey and NET will inspire us with testimonies and dramas.
 If you are thinking about/are excited/haven't even heard about WYD, then Gracefest is for you! Meet fellow pilgrims and begin the journey NOW! 31 July 2015, 6:30pm at St Joachim's Parish – 2 Mills Street, Lidcombe
