Reflection: By Fr Michael Tate: I have met the Dalai Lama, obviously an admirable man of deep spirituality and simplicity of life. He believes that, after his death, there could be a further phase of existence as and insect or an animal.

Contrast Jesus of Nazareth, a man of deep spirituality and simplicity of life. He believed, and staked his life on it, that he would lead a glorified, fully human existence after death. There would be no extinguishing of his personality, but rather, it would be enhanced. He was vindicated in the Resurrection.

As St John Paul II put it, at the Last Supper, Our Lord gave us a sacramental way of eating and drinking and 'digest[ing] the secret of the Resurrection', what St Ignatius of Antioch called, 'the medicine of immortality, an antidote to death'. Our Lord chose bread and wine to convey his Real Presence into us. It is the first course of the marriage feast of Heaven, but it has a beneficial effect on our earthly stage of existence. Bread nourishes us and wine gladdens our hearts. Our Lord shares his risen and glorified life with us because he wants to nourish us and gladden our hearts.

We may take a moment to pray that we will share the marriage feast of Heaven with those we especially love, and those for whom heavenly existence will be a life-enhancing surprise. Let us pray for His Holiness the Dalai Lama that he may find himself alongside Pope Francis in the everlasting joy of Heaven. I have met the Dalai Lama, obviously an admirable man of deep spirituality and simplicity of life. He believes that, after his death, there could be a further phase of existence as and insect or an animal.

WALK WITH CHRIST
 Feast of Corpus Christi

Canonised by Pope Benedict XVI on 3 June 2007.

Not official but some people refer to him as patron saint of Podcasts. St. George Preca (1880-1962) was a Roman Catholic priest who was born in Valletta, Malta. In 1907 he founded the Society of Christian Doctrine a society of lay catechists. He was a priest who dedicated himself entirely to evangelisation: through preaching, writing, catechisis, the administration of the sacrament but first and foremost through the example of his way of life.

The Society of Christian Doctrine was an Apostolic Society of men and women, who are dedicated to catechists. Fr. George Preca strived unceasingly to spread the values and teaching of the Gospel in the Maltese islands. He wrote a great number of books and published numerous prayer booklets. He was undoubtedly a great Apostle of the Gospel which he used to call "The Voice of the Beloved". Through him God was able to bring a great work to fruition the "Society of Christian Doctrine" which aims to ensure that Catholic parishes the service of qualified, well prepared and generous catechists. Saint George Preca entrusted the laity through prayer and formation the divine command to teach the Gospel to all nations. Prepared by Gary Cartmer

On Monday Archbishop Denis Hart issued a statement about Cardinal George Pell, which he subsequently spoke to in interviews. We endorse those comments.

We know Cardinal Pell well from working with him over many years in different capacities. He is a man of integrity who is committed to the truth and to helping others, particularly those who have been hurt or who are struggling. His style can be robust and direct; he does not wear his heart on his sleeve. But underneath he has a big heart for people.

Cardinal Pell was one of the first bishops in the world to put in place a comprehensive Church response to investigate allegations of sexual abuse by Catholic clergy and to provide survivors with redress and counselling. He has responded to criticisms that have been made of his handling of these matters over the years, acknowledged mistakes frankly, and apologised for them.

We appreciate the Cardinal's strong and unfailing support for the important work of the Royal Commission and his constant readiness to assist the Royal Commission whenever he is asked to do so.
